

About Captive Portal

If roaming end-users connect to a hotspot (e.g. in hotels, cafes, airports) their traffic may be routed to a "captive portal," which could require them to first connect through the hotspot's local proxy. In this case, the Web Security Agent disables the PAC file until a connection with a local proxy is established.